DIED. In this city, Sunday morning, May 19th, Mrs. SARAH C., wife of George R. French, aged 57

rears and 10 months. For many long months she was the subject of ntense suffering, and it was only a few days, before her death that her family gave up their long cherished hope that her disease would yield to medical skill, and that she would be again restored to health. For many years che had been a member of the 1st Baptist Church in this city, and it was her ardent desire to live to see the comple tion of the new Church. Her attachment to her family was exceedingly strong, and for a time sho could not feel reconciled to a separation, but a few days before her death she was enabled to resign them submissively into the hands of God, to whom she committed all her interests. To each member of her family she gave words of counsel and advice, then said, "let me go to rest." Her end was so peaceful and quiet that those around her bedside knew not when the spirit left its tenement of clay. Her family have sustained an irreparable loss, but their loss is her gain. Her sufferings on earth are ended; her work finished, and she has entered upon her reward.
